

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1894.

NO. 62

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Born to Prof. and Mrs. E. E. Wood, Friday morning, a daughter.

—Mr. R. T. Hemphill went to Barbourville Wednesday afternoon to attend to some legal business.

—Mr. A. J. Sullivan has been very sick, but is improving. It was thought for a while he would not recover.

—Several parties left here last Sunday for Louisville to attend the U. S. court. Most of the cases are for illegal selling liquor.

—Miss Gertrude Lester very handsomely entertained a large number of her friends last Saturday in honor of her birthday.

—Miss Wood, of Norwalk, O., is visiting her brother, Prof. E. E. Wood. Mr. J. W. Fox, of Big Stone Gap, was here last Monday.

—Miss Mary O'Mara has gone to Cincinnati to study photography. Rev. H. B. Fry, pastor of the Congregational church, has gone to Ohio for his family.

—The court of claims is in session this week. We are glad to note that this august body is together for its last time and that six men will do the work in the future instead of 20 as we now have.

—Mrs. Ellen Sutton, wife of J. W. Sutton, died last Friday at her home, after a long illness of consumption. She was about 40 years of age, and leaves six children, besides her husband to mourn her loss. She was buried in the Brier creek cemetery Saturday afternoon.

—H. H. Tye left Sunday night for Danville, where he will take a course in Centre College law school. Hon. John H. Wilson and Judge J. H. Tinsley, of Barbourville, were here last week. A. J. Parker and R. B. Whitsett left for Louisville Sunday night, where they will enter school.

—Our republican friends are still in deep water in the 11th district and see no Moses to lead them out. Messrs. John D. White and David G. Colson were both here Monday night to see Mr. Hill, the district chairman. From what we can learn Mr. Hill proposes to let the court decide the matter and abide by its decision if possible. Mr. White has petitions that are being circulated among the voters asking them to sign so his name can be placed on the ballot. The election passed off very quietly in this county last Saturday, only 1,101 votes being polled, of which Adams only received 194. Adams' friends refused to go to the polls and vote is the reason the vote was light. The probabilities are that all of the candidates now in the field will run on and that the democrats will also make a nomination.

IN MEMORIAM.

At her home in McKinney, Sept. 24, Ora E. Gooch fell asleep in Jesus. Only 16 short years was she permitted to gladden our hearts, when the summons came: "Come up Higher," and the hands that so willingly helped to lighten the burdens of others were patiently folded, and the feet that were swift on errands of love were still ere they had grown weary; the pain-racked body had taken its flight to the "city where is no more sorrow, nor crying, neither any more pain." The bud which gave promise of such rich possibilities here has been transplanted to bloom in the fields of light. At the early age of 11 years, Ora accepted the Savior and united with the Baptist church. Her faith grew brighter day by day. The stricken parents now have only the sweet memory of the life that has touched and brightened theirs, and the cheering promise of a glad reunion in the Father's house. May the Father of Mercies bless this bereavement to their eternal good.

Wisconsin Central Lines.

Through line from Chicago to St. Paul and Minneapolis, making close connection (no transfer) with lines running to all points in Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, California, and Pacific Coast points. The direct line to all points in Eastern, Middle, Northern and Western Wisconsin, Ashland, Duluth and all Lake Superior points; Double Daily through train service with first class equipment. For full particulars address any Ticket Agent in the United States or J. O. Pond, General Passenger Agent, Milwaukee, Wis.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Expeller. Hardly a week passes but what some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia is quickly relieved. The severe pain of a burn or cold promptly relieved and the sore throat in much less time than when medicine has to be used. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the pain becomes swollen, which can only be done when Pain Expeller is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor's bill. Procure a 50-cent bottle at once and you will never regret it.

For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist, Stanford.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptoms of this croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent this attack.

For sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist, Stanford.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. J. Mort Rothwell will represent the local Masonic lodge in the Grand Lodge which meets in Louisville this month.

—At the sale of J. T. Baughman in Lower Carrard, every thing put up brought extra good prices. Corn in the field sold for $2.15.

—Col. W. O. Bradley was at home a few days after making a number of political speeches through the State. He has a good many appointments to speak yet.

—The Steam "Flying Dutchman," on Lexington street has captured a large number of the old folks of the town, as well as the children. Large crowds attend every afternoon and night. The owner has certainly "struck it" in Lancaster.

—Great and only Goose Egg Owsley, of Richmond, was in town Sunday. Judge Eph. Brown has accepted a position in Bates & West's grocery. Misses Sallie Tillet and Laura Smith have returned from Cincinnati and Indianapolis. Mrs. Wm. George is visiting her parents, in Bristol, Tenn. Misses Ida May and Lillie Grant, are visiting relatives in Danville. Mrs. Campbell, nee Miss Kate Walden is visiting her mother, Mrs. Jesse Walden.

BRODHEAD, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—Mr. Thomas S. Frith is building a new residence on Main street.

—Mr. Oscar Reynolds, of Mareburg, lost his baby with croup last Sunday.

—There will be a wedding a few miles from town on Thursday next and we will give names and facts later.

—Bro. Colyer, the pastor of Mareburg church, in connection with Bro. W. E. Ellis, of Stanford, are conducting a meeting at that church this week.

—Mrs. J. H. Albright is visiting her father, John Coniter, and relatives in Casey, near Middleburg. She has been gone about 10 days.

—Mrs. E. Pratherer gave the young people of our town a social last Monday night, and they all report a fine time and say it was quite a success.

—The Hon. James B. McCreary will speak in Mt. Vernon on the 4th Monday in this month, it being county court day. He will also speak at Livingston and Brodhead later on.

—Mr. J. G. Frith, U. S. storekeeper and gauger is happy again, because Mr. John Jarrett is putting up a distillery, near by, when Mr. Frith can watch and board with his wife.

—Martin & Pratherer have given beauty and comfort to their store building by adding a beautiful office and extending their counters, &c. B. S. Martin has gone to Junction City this week. Mrs. Annie Hayes, of Mt. Vernon, came down to see Mrs. T. Gilpin this week.

—Bro. Pike returned from Gilead church last Saturday, where he and Bro. A. V. Sizemore, of Stanford, had been conducting a series of meetings, which continued 15 days. They had about 100 additions to the church, 84 confessions. They baptized 71 and left 13 approved for baptism. There were 16 restorations.

—Mrs. Olla Manser, of Flat Lick, is visiting Mrs. Thomas Cherry this week. Dr. I. S. Bardett and wife, of Crah Orchard, spent Tuesday here. The doctor is talking of moving back to Brodhead and we would be glad to have him come. Mr. Thomas Cherry has just returned from the city, where he bought a fine lot of goods.

—We agree with Bro. Walton and the Corbin Enterprise, when they say that the rum seller has got to go and the rum drinker is going too. And we join in the prayer, when Bro. Walton prays that they may some day be only a memory, and we will add, may God speed that day. All we need to start the great ball to rolling is for just such men as the editors referred to, to speak out as they have begun, and to continue on that line and we will live to see this grand old nation rise up in those characteristics, which will almost give us a Heaven on earth, and which will reduce our tax and almost stop the flow of human blood, and give us peace and sobriety, instead of drunkenness and death.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Egger, of Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at A. K. Penny's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—On Tuesday the court of claims was in session and a number of people were in town.

—Capt. T. D. Goldman returned here from Somerset Tuesday evening and gave flattering news of the prospective success of his chief, Col. Adams.

—Col. Silas Adams returned from Owsley county Friday evening and was highly elated at his prospects in that section, and in fact all over the district if it had not been for the injunction, the news of which he met on the route.

—D. G. Colson remained in Putski three days last week and gave from three to four harangues a day as the varying news came in. When the news came in of John D. White's injunction he became highly incensed and declared that he had rather vote for John Morgan's bones than either White or Adams, and that he was a candidate until the election. The great Tycoon from the Magical City has decreed that the soldier element must retire in privacy and let the young men run the government. He may allow a soldier to vote, provided he does not cast it against his supreme highness. He declares that the Congressional honors belong to Colson, on account of his superior qualifications and Adams' profound ignorance, and he is going to have them.

—An account of the absence of the sheriff the injunction was not served in time on all the precincts and a partial vote was taken in some of them until they were notified. The following is the result according to our best information: Jenkins, Adams, 141; Colson, 1; Casey's Creek, Adams, 120; Colson, 0; Middleburg, Adams, 74; Colson, 15; Big South, Adams, 50; Colson, 19; Little South, Adams, 20; Colson, 7. On Big South a large number of Adams men on the Lincoln line had heard of the injunction and did not go to the election. At Middleburg and Jenkins many had heard of the injunction and did not go to the election and many present did not vote. At Casey's Creek the voting was stopped at 2 P. M., as soon as they heard of the prohibition. It is supposed that Colson got about his full strength at those places. Adams' strength in the county is estimated at from 800 to 1,200 majority.

—A terrible fratricide happened about 14 miles South of here, near the Russell county line at 2 o'clock Monday morning. Some time back three young men from Tennessee, named John, Harrison and Burt Owens came on a visit to their grandfather's house in this county, and while there engaged temporarily at a saw mill. Sunday in company with two young men by the name of Thomas they got in possession of some illicit white lightning and got on a spree and continued it on until the time mentioned above. At this time John and Harrison being some little distance off got into a scuffle or play. Burt, who was with the two Thomases, exclaimed that John and Harrison were in a fight and that John was killing Harrison, and he rushed to the scene and attacked John with a knife. Harrison, in attempting to separate them, got severely cut about the hip. At the conclusion of the affair John was found to be mortally wounded and died at 10 A. M., Monday. Burt Owens was arrested by Constable Chapman and taken before Judge Myers for examination. The prisoner, claiming to be unable to employ counsel, Judge Myers appointed J. Boyle Stone to defend him. His attorney, after consulting with him, waived an examining trial and he was ordered to await his trial at the December term of Casey circuit court. It is supposed that the whole party were so much under the influence of whiskey that it is difficult to tell exactly how the killing took place. The prisoner's coat was cut in several places. He claims that he has no recollection of anything that occurred. The best information to be had is, that at the time he was in a wild, frenzied state. Mean, illicit whiskey and the cultivation of fighting propensities may be considered at the bottom of the whole horrible occurrence.

A Gard of Thanks.

TO THE EDITOR.—Allow us through your columns to express our heartfelt thanks to citizens, neighbors and friends who so lovingly stood by us, and in so many ways befriended us during the protracted illness and recent death of our daughter, Ora. No words of ours can express our gratitude and we can only hope to prove our worthiness by a more consecrated life to the service of the God whom our daughter delighted to honor. Respectfully, W. R. & L. A. Gooch. McKinney, Ky., Oct. 2, 1894

The shops and warehouse destroyed by fire at the Eddyville branch penitentiary Saturday morning were the property of the lessees, the Mason-Ford Company, the extensive contractors, and not of the State, as has been reported. No insurance was carried on the buildings or material.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Mattie Mason, of Chillicothe, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. S. G. Hocker, druggist, Stanford.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES

The democratic nominees for county offices are so well and favorably known that it is hardly worth the while to present their pictures and short sketches of them to the voters of Lincoln, but we do so to keep them constantly in their remembrance that they may not fail to work and vote for the full ticket. The other nominees will appear in their order two at a time till the list is complete.

JAMES WALKER GIVENS.

Democratic nominee for county judge, was born in the west end of Lincoln in 1836, and has lived there continuously since, making and maintaining a reputation for honesty and integrity that has made his name a synonym of stainless honor. Though repeatedly urged to offer for political preferment, he has never before aspired to office, satisfied to serve the democratic party with faithfulness and fidelity in a private station, giving of his means and devoting his time to the perpetuation of its principles and the election of its nominees. Besides being a good farmer, Mr. Givens has been a successful stock trader, usually spending his winters in the South disposing of many car loads.

Mr. Givens makes no pretensions to being learned in the law, but he is eminently a man of excellent sense and sound judgment, with a high conception of right and justice. If elected, as he will doubtless be, he will fill the office of judge with an eye single to the best interests of the county and with a fidelity born of a life time of honest purpose and uprightness.

Mr. Givens has shown his love of the fair sex by having taken three of them to wife and if the women could vote his election would be practically unanimous. His present wife was Miss Florence Eastee, a highly educated and excellent lady, and a worthy helpmeet.

JOSEPH BRIGGS PAXTON.

The present and prospective county attorney, was born near Stanford, 30 years ago. He is the only son of the late James Paxton, who was noted for scrupulous honor and Christian virtues. In 1879, Mr. Paxton graduated at Central University and had the degree of A. M. conferred upon him. Returning to Stanford he read law under Hill & Alcorn and in 1881 was admitted to the bar. Shortly afterward he was chosen city attorney of Stanford, which office he filled most acceptably. In 1890 he was elected county attorney, without opposition either in the primary or final election, an unusual compliment in these days of office hunting. How well he has fulfilled the trust confided to him is so thoroughly known and appreciated that the democrats conceded him a clear track for a reelection and the republicans were not fool hardy enough to pit any one against him, so he has a walk over this time.

There are few better lawyers than Mr. Paxton, but he is not satisfied to let well enough alone. He is constantly studying and improving, and making himself an honor to his profession. He is true to every trust, faithful to every duty and is the soul of honor and fairness. His past record is an earnest of his future efforts and shows that the people have made no mistake in honoring him.

A few years ago Mr. Paxton married Miss Mary, the lovely and cultured daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Robinson and he is as happy in his private relations as he is honored in his public capacity.

JUSTICE HARLAN, of the U. S. supreme court, has modified the foolish decision of Judge Jenkins, that the laboring men on the Northern Pacific had no right to quit work or strike. He takes the sensible ground, and law ought always to be founded on sense, whether it is or not, that a man does not become a vessel, simply because he works for wages, with no rights whatever, and holds when quitting work peaceably, whether singly or by concerted action, for the purpose only of bettering their condition, and without using force, threats, or intimidation toward others who do not join them, or who may offer to take their places, laborers can not be legally charged with any loss to the employer resulting from their cessation of work, and are simply exercising a God given right.

THE Georgetown Times says that George Denny, impressed with his own importance, sent a letter to W. C. Owens telling him to send a man to Lexington to arrange with him a list of joint appointments. Mr. Owens, with the dignity worthy of his nomination, replied that he supposed it had not occurred Mr. Denny that it is precisely the same distance from Lexington to Georgetown as it is from Georgetown to Lexington, and the train schedule out of Lexington is more conveniently arranged. The result was that Mr. Denny had to send his man, as he might have thought of doing in the first place.

THE Covington Commonwealth of Monday contains a notice of change, which will fill the hearts of a legion of newspaper friends with delight. No name is given, but it is plain to see that Mr. Laurie J. Blakely has returned to his first love, and assumed editorial control of the "leading democratic daily East of Kentucky river." We welcome him with outstretched arms to the fold again, and extend to him the right hand of fellowship, while his partner in punmanship, Brer Meacham, of the Hopkinsville Kentuckian, sings: "While the lamp holds out to burn, the vilest sinner may &c."

R. SEMMES COLSON, who graduated from the reportorial corps of the Courier-Journal, where by his indefatigable energy he acquired the name of "Scoopy," to an editorial position on the Louisville Times and afterwards to the chief editorship of the Louisville Truth, has been engaged by Mr. Urey Woodson to help edit the Owensboro Messenger, one of the liveliest papers in the State. Congratulations are in order all around.

Four of the present members of Congress from Virginia were turned down for re-nomination, the other six making their calling sure, in some instances after a hard struggle. The republicans, populists and prohibitionists are combining in many cases to defeat the democratic nominees, and are using their utmost endeavors to that end, but they will likely gnaw a file, and the delegation will doubtless remain solidly democratic.

For ways that are dark and for tricks that are mean, the average republican is peculiar. In order to influence men to vote against Mr. Wilson, the tariff reformer, ex-Secretary Elkins and his partner in sin, ex-Senator Davis, have made a reduction in the pay of their miners of 20 per cent and claim that they had to do it on account of the tariff reductions, a lie so palpable that it will not fool even the most ignorant miner.

As an offset to Maine and New Hampshire, Florida and Georgia have spoken in decisive tones for democracy. Florida elected a nearly solid democratic legislature, while Georgia gave Atkinson, democratic candidate for governor, over 30,000 majority. The populists in the latter State made some inroads in the Legislature, but not sufficient to affect democratic control.

THE republicans are making herculean efforts to regain Indiana. President Harrison is to be hauled around the State on a special train to make 20-minute speeches at all towns of importance. He could tell the people the real cause of the hard times if he were honest enough.

A new republican paper, announcing itself for Pugh and protection, has appeared at Grayson, Carter county, edited by Misses Ara and Mollie Keis, aged 18 and 20 years. Poor misguided things! When they get older and have husbands and children they will probably know better.

ONLY 87,000 people will be affected by the income tax. The other 60,000,000 will stand off and laugh to see them pony up some of their easily gotten gains.

THE prohibitionists of Madison have nominated a county ticket.

PRESIDENT M. H. SMITH has voluntarily retired from the directory of the L. & N., but we are glad to be informed that that does not mean his retirement from the road he has done so much towards making the greatest and most successful one in the country. The annual report for the year ending June 30, showed a decrease of $3,429,302.32, in gross receipts, a decrease of $2,518,857.38 in operating expenses, and a decrease of $910,444.74 in net earnings.

ROWLAND.

—The wholesome democratic doctrine in the latest issue of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, should be copied by every paper in the land and proclaimed from every hill-top, until the people are educated to disregard the vociferous harangues and false assertions being made by republicans, by which they seek to lead the people to believe that the democrats are responsible for the financial panic. Let them tell who was in power during the panic of 1873 and some other hard times. The last trouble was a necessary result of vicious republican legislation. If this administration is the cause of it, why are times getting better under the same rule? Congress has enacted laws which are now saving the people millions of dollars and the business outlook promises to be brighter than it has been for years; and when the people generally begin to feel the effects of these changes they will vote where their interests, and they being largely in the majority, when compared with the manufacturers, will roll up an unprecedented majority in November.

—On Tuesday, your correspondent called on our mutual friend, the notorious T. C. Ball, who is known from the vine-clad hills of Lincoln, to the pumpkin producing region of Garrard. His new home is tastily attired, and his superannuated mother is highly delighted with it. Being over 80 years of age, she has old relics collected in the long ago, which are great curiosities; showing the difference between the old and the new dispensations. Among them is a fly-hush, made from the rear feathers of a peacock, before the birth of Thomas, who is now less than 50 years of age, and not a feather is broken. She has quite a variety of home-made blankets and bed covers, which were made by her own hands, years ago. The sheep were caught by Tommy, when a kid, the wool was spun and woven by her, and the garments are far better than the cheap, ready-made stuff, purchased now. She is afraid of a coal oil lamp and uses tallow candles which are not so dangerous, or so destructive to the eyes. In fact it is an old fashioned, independent home, and many believe that Tom is preparing to take unto himself a helpmeet to teach her to follow in the footsteps of his noble old mother. This may be true, but we don't know who the lady can be.

—The State treasurer has money enough to the credit of the school fund to pay the installment of $800,000 due to the teachers and superintendents, and has begun to mail the checks. Resumption of payment out of the general revenues may begin in November.

ASSESSOR KENNEDY is busily engaged in the Stanford precinct at present. He says that while lands will average about as last year, stock is given at much lower prices, especially horses, and he fears the assessment will be materially decreased. He further says he has never seen as poor a corn crop as made this year, since he has been assessor.

The Old Fellows Lodge has voted to invite the grand lodge to meet here next year and quite a number of members will go with the regular delegates, A. C. Sine, J. T. Harris and J. A. Allen, to the meeting at Paris next week to extend the invitation. Mr. Sine has secured a round-trip rate over the L. & N. via Livingston of $3, which is less than half fare and which can be taken advantage of by anybody. The grand lodge of Old Fellows met here a number of years ago, but it was a small thing compared with now when over 400 delegates assemble. Mr. Sine has made arrangements for taking care of them, should they come, and it is hoped that the invitation will be accepted. It would be a big thing for Stanford and we trust that nothing will be left undone to secure the meeting here.

MR. G. A. BENEDICT is the "trading" man in the country and a general thing he comes out ahead in his deals. Several days ago he left here with a Texas pony, a 25 year-old mule, a blind mule and a pretty good work mule with the intention of spending a while "swapping." He returned Wednesday and gave us the following report: "I was at Lebanon court and the rest of the time I spent in Taylor county, which I found to be a first-rate one in which to swap horses. I made 26 swaps in all and traded for the blind mule and owned him three times in four days, but finally got rid of him for good." Are you ahead on your trip? Our reporter asked. "A little," was his reply. "I brought back two nice five-year-old mares, a good brood mare, the best mule I started with besides a yoke of oxen worth $50 and a $750 sow. I also have several dollars more than I left with." Mr. Benedict said he really enjoyed the trip and that he would go back to Taylor county and try it again as soon as he heard of the death of the blind mule.

A SENSATION is promised in Rockcastle, when a case now undergoing official investigation is made public. It seems that somebody has been using the name of Willis Adams, Jr., to affidavits for increase of pensions, in which it is stated that he is a justice of the peace and has been since July 1892. An application of this sort was sent to Mr. Adams from the pension department at Washington a few days ago, asking that he sign his name in the blank, in his official capacity, to the paper in which County Clerk M. C. Miller, of Rockcastle county, certifies that Mr. Adams is a justice and authorized to make such acknowledgements. The seal of the county is attached, which Mr. Miller says he did not attach, not having seen or heard of the paper before. As the name of D. P. Bethurum, republican candidate for county judge, appears as attorney in the case, he will be called on, if he has not before this, to make some explanations that may possibly be hard to explain. There is no telling how many such documents have procured pensions, but it will all come to light in due time and somebody will do time for the crime of forgery and swindling the government.

The farming lands of Sam J. Embry, W. P. Tate, John M. McRoberts, A. D. Root and others within the town limits, have been levied on by Marshal Newland for taxes and the question will be fully tested as to the liability of such lands for city taxation.

SHERIFF MOREN, of Laurel, took to London, Wednesday, Robert Lawrence and Creek Vivian, charged with car breaking and William Scott, with murder, to be tried at the present court. They have been in jail here nearly six months for safe keeping.

Hena is an example worthy of emulation and imitation. Mr. Lewis Rossell came up Wednesday and paid his subscription to the Interior Journal for the 20th year. It was not due for some time, but he said he knew that people would crowd up so to pay Monday, that he wanted to avoid the rush. If all our subscribers were like Mr. Rossell, the editor would be a bloated bondholder instead of a penniless pauper.

LAWYER DAVISON is making a most active canvass for the office of county judge and putting up the most pitiful of pleas. He realizes that it is a ground hog case with him and he is letting the rest of the republican ticket take care of itself. He may wheedle a few so-called democrats to come to his rescue, but we have an abiding faith that a large majority will stand by our ticket and elect Mr. Givens by a handsome vote. But it behooves the democrats to be on the alert and poll their full strength. Let there be no wavering, but with a full line presented to the enemy march on to certain victory.

The Court of Claims met Tuesday, Judge W. E. Varnon presiding and the following justices present: J. T. Brown, W. A. Coffey, Wm. Leach, George P. Bright, George W. Young, John Bailey, Geo. D. Smiley, T. S. Blankenship, L. B. Adams, A. C. Carman, W. L. Dawson, H. F. Newland, W. P. Grimes, Sr., E. B. Caldwell, Jr., and W. A. Collier. County Attorney J. B. Paxton announced that he had had the court-house insured for $8,000 and the jail for $4,000 for five years at a cost of $360 and an order was made to pay the amount. Forty or more paupers were allowed from $3 to $6 a month. A committee was appointed to investigate the turnpikes aided by the county and report why the citizens have not paid the debts on them, as agreed, instead of applying tolls for that purpose. W. M. Bright was reelected treasurer. Drs. Pettus & Walls, on a bid of $100, were elected poor house physicians by a vote of 8 to 6 over Dr. W. M. Doores, whose bid was $140. The reason for this was that Dr. Doores, who had held the position, declined to dress the leg of a pauper, who had hurt himself, and Andy Rice had to be paid $20 for his services in that line, the doctor claiming that it was not his place to perform such service. The salary of the county judge for the ensuing year was cut $100 and fixed at $800. W. F. McClary, as superintendent of schools, remains at $900. Jailer S. M. Owens was allowed $1,165.30 and docked $150 for claim for waiting on and making fires for courts in criminal cases. Mrs. Sue Holmes' claim for keeping poor house, amounting to $637.10, was allowed. County judge and county attorney were appointed to investigate the best method, of the three proposed, for the working of the county roads, and report to this body. The price of teams on road was fixed at $1.75 a day. The road claims amounting to $3,000 or more were at first allowed, but after a speech by Hon. W. H. Miller, who said they were out of all reason, having run up from $500 when he was county attorney, a reconsideration was moved and carried, the following justices voting aye: Leach, Caldwell, Bright, Collier, Brown, Dawson, Blankenship, Bailey, Young and Grimes, 10. Those voting nay were Coffey, Newland, Adams, Smiley and Carman, 5. It was then moved and adopted that the court adjourn to Saturday, Oct. 13, to consider those claims and to have the various overseers of the road present to be examined in the matter of so great an increase in the amount claimed.

Old Mr. Harber, of the Preacher'sville neighborhood, mistook a bottle of liniment, Sunday night, for the medicine he was looking for and taking a big dose of it, died from the effects. He was about 90 years of age.

Mr. THOMAS C. YEAGER returned Wednesday from a two months' outing with Tip Bruce's pacers in the Western Circuit. He did not win as much money as he had hoped to with this good string but considering the fast time the races he was in were made he did very well. He won one race with Harry B., worth $1,000, and gave him a mark of 2:20. He was second once with him and was second once with Hustler, lowering his record from 2:22 to 2:12. With these two he got third money three times and fourth money the same number. Barney, the great campaigner of last year, on account of a failure of his races to fill, was started only once and got fourth money. His race was won in 2:07.

A NEW SENATOR'S FAMILY.

The Mississippi Statesman Has a Wife and Eight Children.

Senator McLaurin of Mississippi has a family of which he may well be proud. Mrs. McLaurin was Miss Laura Kauch, born at Trenton, S. C., but brought up in Mississippi. Her father, of German descent, was one of the finest classical scholars of the state. Mr. and Mrs. McLaurin fell in love when they were children at school together. She was married when she was not quite 20 and he two or three years past, and they have remained devoted lovers ever since.

Mrs. McLaurin looks very youthful to be the mother of eight children. She is fair, with blue eyes, abundant silky light brown hair, and has a slender figure of medium height. Her manner is pleasant and winning.

There are eight children—seven daughters and one son, Ainslie J., Jr.

A. J. McLaurin, Jr. Mrs. McLaurin. Miss Daisy McLaurin.

a bright and clever lad of 11, wonderfully unspoiled considering how many sisters he has to pet him.

The three eldest daughters—Stella, Delta and Daisy—have graduated with high honors and are accomplished beyond the average well educated girl. They are all pretty, with beautiful complexions and fine figures. Stella, who became last April the bride of Dr. Bery of Jackson, Miss., was considered one of the most perfectly beautiful girls in the south as well as one of the most talented.

Delta Upslon, the second, has diplomas in four languages besides her own, is well read in ancient and modern literature, takes a deep interest in the leading questions of the day and talks well about them, but is rather reserved. She is a graceful and fearless horse-woman too.

Daisy Ellen made her debut last winter and became a belle at once. She is somewhat taller than her sisters, with a beautiful, erect figure and fine carriage. Her complexion is exquisite, her expression bright and animated, and there are pretty dimples in her cheeks. She sings and plays well and recites finely.

The other girls are Mary, Irene, Grace and Jean, schoolgirls yet, and Laura, the baby, a blond fairy 5 years old.

JULIETTE M. BABBITT.

Washington.

A Clever Writer.

Grace Livingston Furniss in her tales of Nantucket life has introduced story readers in a quaint, witty fashion to types of New England life that are unique and picturesque. So far she has had this field to herself. The Nantucket vernacular has been attempted by a few, but none has succeeded like this writer in charming our literary palate.

In the last year Miss Furniss has devoted her pen to the lucrative work of playwriting. She believes that it has a wonderful future for women, as few have entered it as a profession. It has been said of her plays by critics they show originality of conception and powerful treatment in the execution. Her plots are clever and the dialogue bright and natural.

It is not generally known the author of "A Box of Monkeys" is in her twenties. She is tall, with a wealth of hair coiled on top of a proud little head and fastened with a jeweled pin. Miss Furniss spends her winters in New York. Her social position is one of the best by reason of a long line of illustrious ancestors. She is seen little in society, as she believes social dissipation means death to ideas.

The dainty authoress and her talented mother entertain liberally during the summer months at The Moorings, one of the handsomest cottages on Nantucket island. Every man, woman and child hails her advent with delight, for she is beloved by all. Many friends has she among the old captains. They not only excel in telling yarns of a salty flavor, but possess an inexhaustible fund of dry humor and sarcasm which would put a town bred cynic to the wall. Miss Furniss has a genuine admiration for them and frankly admits they are often material for her bewitching stories.

MAUD JAMES CHILTON.

When woman suffrage carries the day this fall in Kansas, and women cast their ballots for members of the legislature, and ex-Senator John J. Ingalls wants to be a senator again without the "ex," the lady voters will probably not forget that in 1867 he called woman suffrage "an obscene dogma." Ingalls, however, refused at that time to debate the question with Susan B. Anthony. He seemed to be afraid of the women.

If you have a dimple nothing looks sillier than to grin to show it.
